

UNIVERSITY OF KALYANI

Advertisement

Applications are invited on prescribe proforma available in the university website from eligible Indian citizens for a walk-in-interview for the position of Director, Directorate of Open & Distance Learning (DODL) in the mode of purely contractual and temporary basis initially for one year or may be continued after satisfaction of his/her work.

Minimum and desirable qualifications:

1. Professor/equivalent position with good academic record having a Master's Degree with Ph.D.
2. Minimum of ten years of teaching/academic administrative experience in University/College, and/or experience in research at the University/National level Institutions/industries.
3. Having good number of publications in research journals and books, etc. or experience of supervising candidates for research at doctoral level.
4. Contribution to educational innovation having expertise on training/ design of new curriculum & courses and educational technology, etc.
5. Knowledge of different regulations of Distance Education/UGC/NAAC/Higher Education, etc.
6. Having an Administrative experience of Distance Mode of Education.
7. Knowledge of Computer/Virtual Classes/e-Governance and guiding research studies will be desirable.

Age: Preferably not more than 55 years.

Condition: He /She has to stay at Kalyani, West Bengal.

Consolidated Salary: Negotiable

Last date of sending filled in application form along with other academic records to the mail: selectiondodl@klyuniv.ac.in within 24th July, 2021 (05:00 p.m.)

Date of Walk-in-interview will be intimated through University website: www.klyuniv.ac.in and email.

Sd/
Registrar